Howdy.

It's always good to get back to Park City. With so many local friends and family members, Team DEVO rolled into town ready to thrill the hometown gang.

Junior Expert Men Cross Country

Starting with the Junior Cross Country event on Friday, June 15th, Chris Peterson and Ryan Harrison were racing on their hometown track. Chris led from lap one and didn't relinquish the lead. Ryan was the only one able to close, catching him at the finish in a spectacular sprint to the line. Chris held a slim lead – a one second margin – over Ryan.

On Saturday, June 16, the Women's Pro and Men's Pro races were fast. Hillary Wright rode strong and, despite a crash early in the race, Rachael Throop also had a strong finish. Mitchell Peterson, another local rider for DEVO, and McConnell "Macky" Franklin rode very well and after overcoming some difficulties – a lost water bottle and a fall – had respectable finishes.

Following all of the Cross Country races, the Junior Women had a time of it dealing with ruts, but new DEVO rider Amy Cox made the best of the situation, followed closely by Essence Barton.

Junior Men's Short Track

On Sunday, June 17th, the Junior Men's Short Track event was one of the more exciting races of the weekend and an opportunity for DEVO riders to shine, placing three on the podium.

Once again, DEVO rider Sabra Davison showed she's tough, riding in an event dominated by strong riders.

And last but not least, I'm thrilled to announce that Trevor Downing is back having finished 6th in the Pro Men's Super D riding his new GIANT Trance.

Thank you to our sponsors. You keep our wheels rolling. Now it's on to Mount Snow.

Kemp out.
